DISCUSSION GUIDANCE

Let students answer without forcing disclosure. Keep the lesson's controlling movement clear, return unclear answers to 1 Peter 3:18; Romans 3:21-26, and keep Jesus Christ Himself at the center rather than treating salvation as detached benefits.

FAMILY CONVERSATION

1. The barrier between sinners and God I understand best:
2. Why Christ is a willing substitute:
3. What does this lesson reveal about Jesus Christ?
4. What honest next step would faithfulness require?

PASTORAL SAFEGUARDS

- Do not force a profession or make public disclosure the price of help.
- Do not reassure automatically from a prayer, baptism, attendance, emotion, or puzzle answer.
- Distinguish conviction, questions, resistance, doubt, and present trust before responding.
- Keep union with Christ central: salvation is not a collection of benefits apart from Him.
- Remember the settled order: the sinner believes; the Spirit gives life.

PRIVATE INVITATION

You do not have to answer publicly or pretend certainty. Speak privately with one of us; we will listen and open the Bible with you.
