

RESURRECTION: THE LIFE DEATH CANNOT DEFEAT

Why a Dead Saviour Could Not Save Us

BIG IDEA: Christ rose bodily into incorruptible human life over which death has no dominion. He is the source, promise, and pattern of life for all who belong to Him.

ACTIVITY 1 - FOLLOW THE STORY

Number the four movements in order. Then tell a partner what changes from the first movement to the last.

ACTIVITY 2 - KEY WORDS

Choose three words from the box. Write one sentence explaining how they belong to this lesson.

RISEN

BODY

LIFE

DEATH

FIRSTFRUITS

HARVEST

MEMORY VERSE - ROMANS 6:9

"Knowing that Christ being raised from the dead dieth no more; death hath no more dominion over him."

RESURRECTION: THE LIFE DEATH CANNOT DEFEAT

Match, compare, and respond

ACTIVITY 3 - MATCH THE TRUTH

Draw a line from each lesson word on the left to its meaning on the right.

1. SURVIVAL

C. The body is raised and transformed beyond death

2. RESUSCITATION

D. The beginning and guarantee of the harvest

3. RESURRECTION

A. The person continues while the body remains dead

4. FIRSTFRUITS

B. Mortal bodily life returns and may die again

ACTIVITY 4 - BEFORE AND AFTER

MORTAL

>

INCORRUPTIBLE

DEATH RULES

>

NO DOMINION

ONE RISEN

>

HARVEST PROMISED

THINK AND WRITE

Why survival is not yet resurrection:

What firstfruits promises:

BOTTOM LINE: Christ is alive forevermore, and death cannot keep those who belong to Him.

A family activity for this week's lesson

WORD SEARCH - FIND THE LESSON WORDS

Find the ten words. Then circle the two words that best summarize what God does in this lesson.

FIND THESE WORDS

RISEN	BODY
LIFE	DEATH
FIRSTFRUITS	HARVEST
CHRIST	RAISED
DOMINION	FOREVER

TALK ABOUT IT AT HOME

1. What does 1 Corinthians 15:12-28 show about this week's truth?
2. Why Lazarus differs from the risen Christ:
3. How does this lesson lead us toward Jesus Christ?

THIS WEEK: Read 1 Corinthians 15:12-28. List what would be true without resurrection and what is true because Christ is risen.

PRAY: Lord, show us Your truth and lead us to trust and follow Jesus Christ.

RESURRECTION: THE LIFE DEATH CANNOT DEFEAT

A personal reflection for this week's lesson

CENTRAL TRUTH: Christ rose bodily into incorruptible human life over which death has no dominion. He is the source, promise, and pattern of life for all who belong to Him.

1 - TRACE THE MOVEMENT

MORTAL

>

INCORRUPTIBLE

>

NO DOMINION

ONE RISEN

>

HARVEST PROMISED

2 - PERSONAL AUDIT

Why survival is not yet resurrection:

Why Lazarus differs from the risen Christ:

What firstfruits promises:

Why salvation requires a living Saviour:

3 - TEST THE CLAIM

A student says, "The resurrection means Jesus' ideas survived after He died." What does bodily resurrection claim instead?

SEVEN-DAY CHALLENGE: Read 1 Corinthians 15:12-28. List what would be true without resurrection and what is true because Christ is risen.

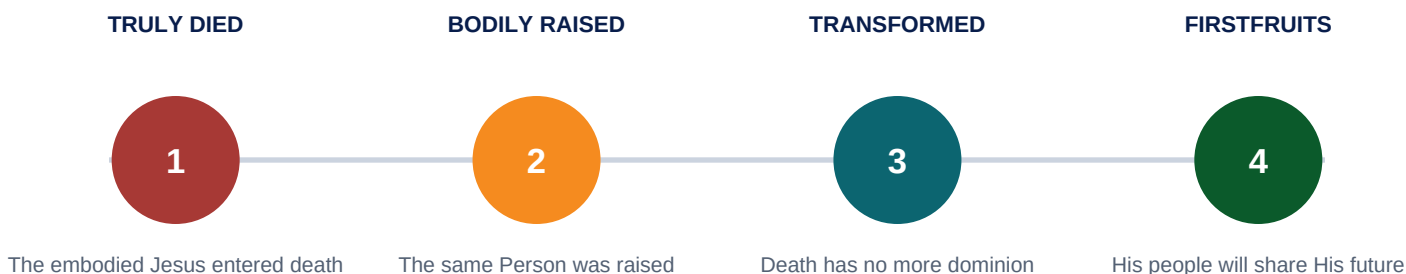

Questions are welcome. Ask a trusted leader to open Scripture with you privately.

RESURRECTION: THE LIFE DEATH CANNOT DEFEAT

Helping young people respond honestly to the Gospel

THEOLOGICAL AIM

Christ rose bodily into incorruptible human life over which death has no dominion. He is the source, promise, and pattern of life for all who belong to Him.

DISCUSSION GUIDANCE

Let students answer without forcing disclosure. Keep the lesson's controlling movement clear, return unclear answers to 1 Corinthians 15:12-28; Romans 6:4-11, and keep Jesus Christ Himself at the center rather than treating salvation as detached benefits.

FAMILY CONVERSATION

1. Why survival is not yet resurrection:
2. Why Lazarus differs from the risen Christ:
3. What does this lesson reveal about Jesus Christ?
4. What honest next step would faithfulness require?

PASTORAL SAFEGUARDS

- Do not force a profession or make public disclosure the price of help.
- Do not reassure automatically from a prayer, baptism, attendance, emotion, or puzzle answer.
- Distinguish conviction, questions, resistance, doubt, and present trust before responding.
- Keep union with Christ central: salvation is not a collection of benefits apart from Him.
- Remember the settled order: the sinner believes; the Spirit gives life.

PRIVATE INVITATION

You do not have to answer publicly or pretend certainty. Speak privately with one of us; we will listen and open the Bible with you.
